SOUTHERN HIGHLANDS

MEDIA RELEASE 1st August 2008

Australia's most well known wine critic and Judge James Halliday has published his 2011 Australian Wine Companion.

With Cuttaway Hill again being highly rated by Mr Halliday, the Cuttaway Hill Chardonnay topped the list with a stunning 93/100 followed by the Sauvignon Blanc at 92/100 and the always popular Pinot Gris was given a 91/100.

James Halliday Australian Wine Companion 2011

Cuttaway Hill 2008 Chardonnay – Bright colour; the bouquet is starting to build some bottle developed complexity, the palate bringing grapefruit and white peach flavours to the fore, oak merely a whisper. Rating 93pts/100 **good value for money wine*

Cuttaway Hill 2009 Sauvignon Blanc – A zesty, lively wine on bouquet and palate alike, the flavours ranging through herb, citrus and gooseberry, the finish bright and crisp. Rating 92pts/100 **good value for money wine*

Cuttaway Hill 2009 Pinot Gris – Spice, pear and fig aromas; genuine gris style, rich and mouthfilling, Alsace-like. Rating 91pts/100

Cuttaway Hill 2008 Pinot Noir – Rating 88pts/100
